uDesktop NEXT change user's judgement of how user can search wallpapers.

There is nothing Mac users view more often on their computers than the desktop. The desktop greets users each time they log in, and they instantly recognize it as their own. There are countless apps and websites offering images to personalize the desktop, but none so powerful, user friendly and economical as uDesktop NEXT.

First, unlike other similar applications in uDesktop NEXT there is no hidden or additional costs. A choice of thousands incredible, beautiful, high-resolution images is provided free. Users may download as many as they wish.

Second, the quality and variety of the wallpapers are unsurpassed. There are 36 categories of images, each containing dramatic, artistic photographs for any taste.

Third, wallpapers available in different resolutions for everything from iPhone and iPad to the brand-new iMac with Retina 5K display, including wallpapers for latest iPhone 6, iPhone 6S and iPad Pro.

Fourth, lets user add their own images in the catalog for displaying on the desktop. This would allow uDesktop NEXT to become a unified center for managing user's wallpapers. Mix personal photos with the best of professional photography.
